The Problem of Anxiety

(Matt. 6:25-34)

Everyone is familiar with anxiety. It is a problem of epidemic proportions. Yet, as prevalent as it is, anxiety, or worry, is one of the most counterproductive things we can do. “Worry is like a rocking chair; it will give you something to do, but it won’t get you anywhere.” How should Christians approach the problem of worry? What can we do about it?

I. Understanding the Problem.

What is anxiety? Anxiety is distress about future uncertainties. It primarily has to do with what “might” happen in the future, either near or distant. What causes anxiety? Anxiety is caused by real or imagined threats to our own well-being. Anxiety has three main elements. Insecurity: something bad is going to happen. Helplessness: there is nothing I can do about it. Isolation: there is no one to help me. These can operate individually or in a combination.

II. Overcoming the Problem.

Trust in God. The actual cause of anxiety, in many cases, is a lack of faith in God. The Christian is very secure (Heb. 4:16; Pro. 3:23-26). The Christian has the greatest help (Rom. 8:31; Psalms 27:5). God is always at the side of a Christian (Matt. 28:20; Heb. 13:5-6). The remedy for anxiety is complete trust and confidence in God’s abilities (John 14:1; Rom. 8:31; Phil. 4:13).

III. We need to take these practical steps.

1. The most important thing we can do is to study the Scriptures, pray, and meditate on God’s precious promises. (Rom. 15:4; 2 Pet. 1:4)
2. We have to learn to let go of these problems and allow the Lord to be in charge of them. (1 Pet. 5:7; Matt. 11:28-30)
3. Change is inevitable, so we must be adaptable, or adjustable. (Phil. 4:11-12)
4. Many times we concentrate on the unimportant cares, to the neglect of the important ones. (Matt. 13:22)
5. Proper use of today diminishes anxiety about tomorrow. (Matt.6:34)
6. Much good can be accomplished if we will quit concentrating on what we can’t do and focus on what we do.
7. Learn contentment. (Phil. 4:11-13)

The Big Black Box

Every 3rd Sunday evening, Jimmy will have a Questions & Answers session. You can submit Biblical questions by placing them in the Big Black Box in the foyer. These questions will be dealt with in the order they are received.

The Big Blue Box

We, as Christians, need to show concern for our brethren and others. If you know of someone who needs checking on, has problems in their life, etc. write out the information and put it in the Blue Box in the foyer. David Martin is overseeing this good work.

Welcome Visitors

We Welcome You and Thank You For Coming. We are honored by your presence. Please be sure to fill out a Visitors' Card and sign our Guest Register in the foyer so that we may have a record of your attendance.
