Now That The Summer Is Over...

We just went through a very eventful summer. From community activities, to Bible camp, we have had so much going on. I am so thankful to this congregation for stepping up and helping in the way that you have. There was never a shortage of people wanting to help. I cannot explain how grateful I am for that. The main question that will be asked following such an eventful summer is: “what now?” Well, let’s take a few minutes to answer that question.

It is time to rest.

I don’t know about anyone else, but I am physically and mentally drained. It seemed that most of our summer events were planned back to back to back. Yet, the rewards are worth the effort! There is nothing wrong with needing to take a “breather.” We find that Paul took some time off in between his missionary journeys (Acts 14:28). In Gen. 2:2-3, we are told that God “rested” on the seventh day of creation. We need rest. It is good for our body and soul. However, we need to make sure that this is not an “extended rest!”

It is not time to retire.

There is much work that needs to be done! Our responsibility now is to build upon everything that we have done this summer. For the youth, we need to build upon the relationships that we have made this summer and continue to grow as a group. For the church as a whole, our community knows that we are here, so we need to take advantage of that. We need to be setting up studies and extending invitations to our services. In Col. 4:3, Paul asked for a door to be opened so that he can lead more souls to Christ. That is what we have been praying for and what we have been working towards. So, let’s not let this opportunity pass without doing something about it!

I hope that you were encouraged this summer. I am already looking forward to next year. I strongly believe that our future is bright. I look around and am encouraged by everything that I see in our midst. So, let’s get to work to spread the borders of God’s kingdom in Fort Payne!

— Jimmy

Today’s Sermon Topics

Morning Sermon:

Rise Up and Commit

— Nehemiah 6:3

Evening Sermon:

Knowledge That Matters

— Psalms 1:1-3

The Big Black Box

Every 3rd Sunday evening, Jimmy will have a Questions & Answers session. You can submit Biblical questions by placing them in the Big Black Box in the foyer. These questions will be dealt with in the order they are received.

The Big Blue Box

We, as Christians, need to show concern for our brethren and others. If you know of someone who needs checking on, has problems in their life, etc. write out the information and put it in the Blue Box in the foyer. David Martin is overseeing this good work.
