Something To Think About . . . . .

- A Christian woman was overheard saying to another Christian woman, "When we get to Heaven, I hope your mansion is next to mine!". What a beautiful thought. Can you say that about all of your Christian brethren? If not, now is the time to do something about it.
- David, the King, was called a "man after God's own heart"; yet he sinned. David was forgiven because he repented of his sin. We, too, can gain the forgiveness of God for our sins; no matter how dreadful. We simply must ask.
- Scripture teaches that God will judge all murderers, rapists, thieves, liars, adulterers, etc. He will even judge our words and our thoughts. On judgement day, will you be found guilty or innocent of breaking His Law? Perhaps you think that God is good (and He is!) and will therefore overlook your sins. But it is His goodness that will ensure that murderers, rapists, thieves, liars, adulterers, etc. receive justice. He would be a corrupt judge if He turned a blind eye to injustice!
- We have the inexpressible privilege of sharing. "We have this treasure in earthen vessels" (2 Cor. 4:7). "We are ambassadors therefore on behalf of Christ, as though God were entreating by us" (2 Cor. 5:20). To share the glorious Good News of salvation in Christ, and positive thoughts in a world of negativity.
- It's not too late to praise the Lord for His great mercy, love, and kindness.
- I may not know what tomorrow may bring. I may never know why I endure certain things. All I need to know is the Lord God. He knows all, is all-powerful, and cares for me and you.
- Dr. Seuss once said, "The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you will go."
- Even when you "think" you have no more to give, when a friend cries out to you, you will find the strength to help.
- In I Corinthians 3, Paul writes, "I planted, Apollos watered, but God was causing the growth." Not everyone can be "sowers", but most everyone can be "waterers". Without the water, the seed will not grow. Can you do a little watering?
- "I know you believe you understand what you think I said, but I'm not sure you realize that what you heard is not what I meant." – Have a good day!

Think about it.

Here's hoping you'll make the "most of your minutes" this week.

Hope to see you at Bible Study tonight.

In Christian Love,
