Of First Importance: Sanctification

When a person becomes a Christian, the work of God is just beginning. The goal is not merely to secure forgiveness, but to transform saved people into the image of God's Son. However, Satan will do everything in his power to resist the removal of sin and retake lost ground. It is no wonder that the Bible describes the Christian life as a holy war that must be waged constantly. (2 Cor. 10:3-6)

1. Sanctification is a Process.

- A. The struggle against sin is _____.
1. The immediate break with sin occurs in conversion, but the commitment to honor that break never ceases.
 2. Every day, Christians must _____ their love for God and resist the temptation that puts their love to the test. (Rom. 12:1-2)
- B. There are 3 distinct ways to view the work of sanctification.
1. A _____: When a person becomes a child of God, he experiences a change of status or relationship. (Rom. 5:10)
 2. A process: The heart is changed, and the will is committed to honoring the heart's intent. (1 John 3:9)
 3. A _____: A renewed heart results in a reformed life. (Gal. 5:22-23)

2. The Responsibility of Sanctification.

- A. In its primary sense, sanctification is the work of _____.
- (1 Thess. 5:23)
1. In addition to the Father's work, Jesus is involved in sanctification through the giving of His life. (Eph. 5:25-26)
 2. The Holy Spirit is also involved in sanctification by helping us _____ our thoughts, words, and deeds to God's will through the scriptures. (1 Cor. 6:11)
- B. However, sanctification is also the responsibility of the Christian.

3. The Resources for Sanctification.

- A. We are sanctified by _____.
- B. Jesus told Paul that faith in Him was the key to sanctification. (Acts 26:18)
1. Spiritual life _____ spontaneously generate any more than physical life.
 2. Sanctification is the development of a purer, more fervent faith in Christ through the power of God's word.

Grief Counseling With Robby Owens

We would like to invite anyone who has a need to attend our grief/loss class TODAY at 3:00PM. Our class will be held in the Fellowship room upstairs.

Loss can occur in our lives in a multitude of ways, as can grief. We can grieve the loss of family or friends or the loss of something as close to us as a job.

A grief group cannot solve all of our difficulties in this area, but we can let you know we care and we can offer some meaningful suggestions.

The class will last approximately 2 hours and will continue for 8 weeks.

I hope you'll come.

Robby
