The Need to Stand

(Acts 5)

Christians are called to be a people with influence. Jesus calls us to be a people who stand in this world for Him. Our words, actions, and commitment to stand as His lights will put us in conflict with the darkness that surrounds us. If we are not willing to take a stand in what is right, we will not be the influence that we ought.

1. Standing Against Sin. (Acts 5:1-11)

- A. _____ among God's people is a serious thing. (1 Cor. 5:6)
1. How can the world believe our message about Jesus when it sees us live inconsistently with what God says is right?
  2. Many times what is most damaging to our influence is our failure to "_____" what we preach.
- B. We all struggle with sin. (1 John 1:8, 10)
1. So we need a place of accountability.
  2. We need a place where people are going to _____ us deal with our struggles. (Gal. 6:1-2)
- C. Every one of us needs to understand the seriousness of sin before God and the impact that sin can have on our influence for Jesus.

2. Standing in the Face of Pressure. (Acts 5:12-42)

- A. The apostles' _____ once again draws the attention of the Jewish leaders.
1. The Jewish leaders are stunned that the apostles are right back in the temple courts proclaiming Christ.
  2. The apostles are ordered to stop teaching Christ, but they stand firm in their convictions. (Acts 5:29)
- B. The way the apostles face persecution gives us 3 tools that will help us stand up under pressure today.
1. Remember our _____. (Acts 5:19-20)
  2. _____ your parameters. (Acts 5:29)
  3. _____ your perspective. (Acts 5:40-41)
