HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO:

Amy Smith 31 Kaye Bradshaw 2 Chris Kirby 4

A Christian's Confidence in Prayer

God wants us to talk with Him. He communicates with us through His revealed word. Christians talk to Him through prayer. As Christians, we need to have confidence in prayer. This is something that John wanted us to know about as well. In 1 John 5:14, John states: “And this is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he heareth us.” Where does this confidence come from?

This confidence is based on the nature of God.

John refers to God as “Father” 10 times in the book of 1 John (1:2, 3; 2:1, 13; 2:15-16, 24; 3:1; 4:14; 5:7). John is denoting the personal concern and the tender care that God has for His people. God wants a personal relationship with you and with me and that can only happen through good communication. So, as the Father of Christians, God is going to listen to the prayers of His children. We should also understand that God is all-wise. This means that we can have confidence in how He will answer our prayers. It may not be the way that we “want”, but it will be what we “need.”

This confidence is rooted in the right relationship with God.

You and I must remember that prayer is a privilege. God loves us more than we can ever fully understand (John 3:16; 1 John 4:9-10). He has done all He can to have a relationship with us, but we must do our part as well. If I really love God, then I will do what He requires of me (1 John 5:3). All we have to do is look at our physical relationships. If there is someone who is doing everything that they can to have a relationship with me, but I refuse to do anything myself, then that relationship is going to fail. The right relationship with God is motivated by love, guided by faith, and demonstrated in obedience (John 14:15).

God's people have always been people of prayer. God's people can live and die in confidence (Heb. 10:36). This is confidence that is based on an understanding of God's nature. This is a confidence that is built on faith and rooted in the right relationship with God. Let us be sure that we have the confidence in prayer that we should!

Jimmy
