Persevering Through Hard Times

Guess what? Life isn't always easy. In fact, life right now is especially difficult. We can't do what we are used to doing. Some of us are facing more difficulties than others, but all of us are trying to navigate this strange time. Due to this fact, let's take a moment and discuss the need for perseverance.

Life will bring many hardships. Job tells us, in Job 14:1, that "Man, that is born of a woman, is of few days, and full of trouble." These hardships will fall under two categories. First, we have the hardships of life that are experienced by all (Matt. 5:45). This would include physical sickness, natural disasters, financial difficulty, etc. These are events that do not discriminate. They will affect the godly and the ungodly just the same. Second, we have the hardships that are experienced due to living a godly life (Matt. 5:10-12). This could include having family and friends turning their back on you for your decision to be a disciple of Christ. In the 1st Century, this type of hardships included prison and even death.

How a person reacts to any of these hardships determines his, or her, character. When difficulty in his, or her, marriage arises is this person going to walk away, or do what is necessary to fix the marriage (1 Cor. 7)? When living faithfully to God becomes difficult, and it does for every Christian, what is the person going to do? Walk away from God and go back into the world, or make the necessary changes? It is not difficult to see how important perseverance is in the life of a Christian.

A good person will have the attitude that Paul demonstrated in 2 Cor. 4:8-9, 16-18. It is only by possessing the characteristic that we can make through to eternal life. "We are pressed on every side, yet not straitened; perplexed, yet not unto despair;

9 pursued, yet not forsaken; smitten down, yet not destroyed."

"Wherefore we faint not; but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is for the moment, worketh for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory;

18 while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Jimmy
