Remembering God in His Kindness

(2 Samuel 9)

Kindness is a noun that is shown through our actions. True kindness is not shown out of necessity or obligation. At the same time, true kindness is anything but random. David's kindness to Mephibosheth was unexpected, but it wasn't random. It was based upon the kindness that David had received from God. Let's look at this story and see what we can learn about the gift of kindness.

1. David's Kindness was a Result of God's Kindness.

- A. At this point, David had gone from shepherd, to soldier, to sovereign _____.
(2 Sam. 7:18)
- B. It is easy to focus on the _____ because our struggles always seem to be in the forefront of our thoughts.
1. It would have been very easy for _____ to skew negative when he was writing to Phillip. (Phil. 1:12-18)
 2. When we consider the positive things God has done in our lives, it should translate into kindness to others.

2. David's Kindness Serves as an Example of God's Kindness to Us.

- A. Look at the question that David asks in _____.
 1. Grace begins in the throne room and finds us.
 2. There was no reason to remember Mephibosheth, but out of _____ kindness, David remembered this crippled man.
- B. God's motivation to reach out to us is _____ kindness, and His kindness will reach to wherever we are.
- C. Mephibosheth could not help himself; he couldn't reach David if he had to.
 1. David sent men to carry him.
 2. God's grace is dependent upon _____ ability, not yours. (Eph. 2:8-9)
- D. Not only was Mephibosheth given a position of royalty, he was given a position of _____. (2 Sam. 9:11)
